CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

Third Summer School on the Chinese Economy

5-7 July 2010

CERDI - Clermont-Ferrand - France

This Summer School is intended for PhD students. Participants will have the opportunity to discuss their own research project with leading researchers in their field. Doctoral students will present their work to the other summer school participants, with a senior economist acting as a discussant. Both doctoral students and senior researchers are expected to participate in every session.

We encourage PhD students to submit either a draft paper or a detailed abstract describing the work-in-progress they intend to present. Attendants will benefit from the overall discussion. Working language: English.

Participants are asked to stay for the entire duration of the Summer School.

Submission deadline: 15 May 2010
