

2011 CES CHINA CONFERENCE CALL FOR PAPERS

The Chinese Economists Society (CES) calls for paper submissions for its 2011 CES China Conference, to be held in Beijing during June 17-19, 2011. The local host for the conference is University of International Business and Economics (UIBE). The theme of the conference is "Ten Years after WTO Accession: China and the World Economy". The conference consists of keynote and invited talks, roundtable forums and parallel sessions. All speeches and sessions are arranged on June 18 and 19, while June 17 is for conference registration, and June 20 is reserved for sight-seeing and free activities.

CES invites both CES and non-CES members to present a paper at the 2011 Conference. All fields of specialization within economics will be considered. Papers focusing on the Chinese economy and on the proposed conference theme such as China's economic relations with Asian and other countries will be given preferences. The paper submission deadline is February 15th, 2011.

INDIVIDUAL PAPER SUBMISSIONS

Individual paper submissions in English should include an abstract of less than 400 words and should be submitted via CES website at www.china-ces.org. You may submit only ONE paper. For your second paper, it must be submitted and (if accepted,) presented by your co-author. You will receive a notification by e-mail once your paper is accepted (or rejected) by March 15th, 2011. Individual paper submissions in Chinese should go directly to Professor Junjie Hong of UIBE at hongjunjie@yahoo.com.

SESSION ORGANIZERS

If you would like to organize one or more sessions on a specific topic and have speakers/presenters lined up, please contact Professor Shaomin Huang for approval at shuang@lcmail.lcsc.edu by February 1st, 2011. The organized session should consist of between 3 and 4 papers. The session chair should submit the title of the session, the titles of the papers, the names of session presenters and their e-mails. Please note that Individual papers must still go through the regular paper submission process through the CES website. However, the "Comments" section of the form should make reference to the special session (e.g., "this paper is part of a special session on Productivity Effects of FDI organized by Prof. Yanling Wang). The applicable submission deadline is also February 15th, 2011.
